
Cancellation Endorsement

The purpose of this Endorsement is to amend certain terms and conditions of the Policy. To the extent of any inconsistency or conflict between the terms of the Policy and this Endorsement, this Endorsement will control. The Policy is amended by adding, deleting, or amending the following terms and conditions, as indicated:

Section 2.9 of the Policy is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Cancellation of Policy - Either the Insured or the Company may cancel their respective right or obligation to receive or issue new Commitments or Certificates under this Policy by providing sixty (60) days' written notice of cancellation of this Policy, except that where cancellation of the Policy by the Company is because of a substantial increase in hazard to the Company, at least ten (10) days written notice of cancellation shall be provided. However, Commitments and Certificates issued prior to such cancellation of this Policy will continue in force so long as all premiums are paid and all other terms and conditions of this Policy for coverage are complied with by the Insured.

All terms capitalized will have the meanings set forth in the Policy, except as otherwise defined herein. Nothing herein contained will be held to vary, alter, waive or extend any of the terms and conditions of the Policy, or any amendments thereto, except as expressly set forth above.
